June 9, Tuesday DAY 1: DEPART U.S.A.

Depart from NY JFK International Airport on an overnight flight to Thessaloniki. Dinner and breakfast will be served on the plane. Quotes for add-on flights from different airports, as well as optional Premium Economy and Business Class upgrades, are available upon request and will be provided starting 120 days before departure. Group air tickets (for ten passengers traveling together) do not permit specific seating requests on flights. We recommend purchasing your own airline tickets and land-only packages with us if seat confirmation is an important part of your trip. Should you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact your trip Account Manager, who will be happy to assist you.

June 10, Wednesday, Day 2: ARRIVE THESSALONIKI

Upon arriving at Thessaloniki Airport, we will proceed through passport control and customs. We will then continue to the arrival hall, where we will be greeted by our English-speaking local tour guide and assisted to the motorcoach. Thessaloniki, the second-largest city in Greece, is a major port and is the capital of the region of Central Macedonia in northern Greece. Historically, the city was named after Thessalonike, a half-sister of Alexander the Great. As a significant center of early Christianity, Thessaloniki is famed as the destination of the Apostle Paul's two canonical epistles, 1 Thessalonians and 2 Thessalonians, written in the middle of the first century. Paul's letters urged the newly formed Christian community (which would later become the Archdiocese of Thessaloniki) to "live blamelessly" and conduct themselves properly while awaiting the Second Coming of Christ. We will settle into our comfortable hotel for a good night's rest. Overnight in Thessaloniki. (Dinner at the hotel)

June 11, Thursday, Day 3: KAVALA- PHILIPPI – THESSALONIKI

After breakfast, which is included each morning, we visit the modern port city of Kavala, once the ancient city of Neapolis. Paul, Silas, Luke, and Timothy landed in this port when they sailed into Europe. Our next stop is Philippi, where Saint Paul established the first church in Europe. "And from there (He went) to Philippi, which is the leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman Colony. We remained in this city some days..." (Acts 16:12-18). We visit the site where Saint Paul baptized a woman named Lydia, the first convert to Christianity in Europe. Mass will be celebrated. We see the Roman Forum, where Saint Paul casts out a spirit from a fortune-teller. While here, we will have the opportunity to view the prison (now in ruins) where the owners of the fortune-tellers had Paul and Silas jailed. Return to Thessaloniki for a delicious meal and a restful overnight stay. (B.D)

June 12, Friday, Day 4: THESSALONIKI – BEMA AT VERIA – KALAMBAKA

We visit Thessaloniki in depth, and its Byzantine tradition is expressed in architecture, churches, and monasteries. We explore the Church of St. Sophia, featuring its eighth-century mosaics; the Church of St. Demetrius, patron saint of the city; the fifth-century Rotunda, which showcases its well-preserved mosaics; and the Arch of Galerius. We travel to Veria, a charming town with a Byzantine and Jewish presence, to visit small Byzantine churches and the Bema of St. Paul, where Mass will be celebrated. Dinner and overnight in Kalambaka. (B.D)

June 13, Saturday, Day 5: KALAMBAKA – METEORA – ATHENS

This morning, we celebrate Mass at Immaculate Conception Church and then travel to Meteora. After lunch on our own, we visit the Meteora Monasteries. In the eleventh century, monks settled within the caves. As the Ottoman occupation intensified, the monks were forced to relocate their settlements higher up the rocks, making them unreachable by any opposing enemy. The monks brought baskets of building materials and supplies for living, using ropes and ladders to transform these settlements into monasteries. The Meteora Monasteries are renowned for preserving Greek Christianity and Hellenic culture, including academics and the arts. We can view stunning Byzantine art and the breathtaking scenery surrounding the monastery during our visit. Women are expected to wear skirts and headscarves, and to have their shoulders covered when entering the Orthodox monasteries and churches. We also visit an icon workshop in the area, where we can see how icons are written. Continue to Athens, where we settle into our hotel, enjoy dinner, and get a good night's rest. Overnight in Athens. (B.D)

June 14, Sunday, Day 6: ATHENS

We start the day celebrating Mass at St. Denis Catholic Church in Athens. Following Mass, we embark on a walking tour of the ancient city, including the Acropolis and the Acropolis Museum, as well as Mars Hill, where St. Paul preached. In the afternoon, enjoy exploring the city at our own pace. Visit a bustling food market, do some shopping in the Plaka section, which is full of small shops, or visit one of the city's many museums. Dinner is at leisure. Overnight in Athens. (B)

June 15, Monday, Day 7: ATHENS – START 4-DAY AEGEAN CRUISE: MYKONOS

We celebrate Mass before we proceed to the Port to board our 4-day cruise aboard the Celestial Discovery. Our first stop will be the Island of Mykonos, the most cosmopolitan Greek island, attracting visitors from around the world. After docking, we transfer to Hora, the island's capital, where we have leisure time to explore the city's narrow, cobbled streets. Pass by chic boutiques, elegant nightclubs, and whitewashed houses to arrive in Alefkandra. This section of Mykonos is known as the "Venice of Mykonos," as the homes with wooden balconies are built on the sea. Historically, these homes were of wealthy merchants and captains. Return to the cruise ship for dinner and overnight. (B.L.D)

June 16, Tuesday, Day 8: CRUISE: KUSADASI – EPHEBUS (MARY'S HOUSE) – PATMOS

After breakfast on board, we arrive at the lively Turkish port of Kusadasi. Transfer to the small village of Mt. Koressos, where we will visit the small stone chapel on the site where the Virgin Mary spent her last days following Christ's crucifixion. Following Mass, we continue to ancient Ephesus and begin our walking tour, which takes us through the most magnificent excavations in the world. The last stop on the walking tour is the Great Theater, which has a capacity of 25,000 and where Saint Paul preached. On the return of our walking tour, follow the exact route that Mark Anthony and Cleopatra once rode in procession via the Arcadian Way. This main street runs from the Great Theatre to the central city's harbor. Upon arrival in Kusadasi, enjoy free time to explore on our own before returning to the ship. The next stop is Patmos, where we visit the Monastery of Saint John the Theologian. This marvelous structure was built nine hundred years ago and continues to be supported by the walls of a strong fortification. In addition to the stunning main church with outstanding frescoes, we will view the beautiful courtyard, dining room, and bakery. Our tour continues to the small museum, where we will view priceless ecclesiastical treasures, including books, manuscripts, mosaics, icons, textiles, vestments, and jewelry. Board the bus, which will take us to the Monastery and Grotto of the Apocalypse. In this grotto, experience a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to view the site where the Book of Revelation was written. Return to the ship for dinner and spend the night. (B.L.D)

June 17, Wednesday, Day 9: CRUISE: RHODES – THE ISLAND OF KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN

The Island of Rhodes is a mix of Roman and Byzantine architectural styles. Rhodes was one of the most important seafaring and trading centers in the Eastern Mediterranean during ancient times. Conquered in 1309 by the Knights of Saint John of Jerusalem, it is now under UNESCO protection. The day is at leisure in Rhodes, allowing us to explore the city on our own. We can return to the ship for our included lunch or enjoy lunch on our own in town before we celebrate Mass at Santa Maria Catholic Church (a 5-minute walk from the port). (B.L.D)

June 18, Thursday, Day 10: CRUISE: CRETE (HERAKLION) – SANTORINI

Shore excursions for guided visits of Crete may be purchased on the ship. We recommend visiting Heraklion independently or booking a guided tour of the island, which includes a visit to the ancient ruins of the Palace of Knossos. These ruins were discovered in 1899, and the palace is partially reconstructed. This ancient palace is believed to have been the mythical Labyrinth of King Minos and the seat of ancient Minoan culture. Additionally, it is the site where Saint Paul met the ship's owner and captain, who warned him to continue his journey to spread Christianity in Rome. If an optional excursion is not purchased on board the ship, then our time in Crete will be spent at leisure. Return to the ship to sail to the idyllic island of Santorini, the most breathtaking island of all the Greek Islands. We disembark via tender upon arrival in Santorini. We take the cable car to visit Thira with its iconic white-washed houses, narrow streets, open-air cafes, and glittering boutiques that cling to cliffs. Mass will be celebrated at St. John Catholic Church (TBC) before returning to the ship for our last dinner and overnight stay on our cruise. (B.L.D)

June 19, Friday, Day 11: ATHENS – CORINTH – WINE TASTING

After disembarkation, we visit ancient Corinth. Under the shadow of the towering Acropolis, Saint Paul lived in Corinth for two years. While here, Saint Paul felt great grief over how the Gentile Church in Corinth had become. As a result, he was prompted to write four letters, all with the overarching theme of love. In Corinth, we will have the opportunity to view the remains of the first-century shops, the site of Saint Paul's trial by Gallio, the Fountain of Peirene, and the Temple of Apollo. We celebrate Mass at the Steps of St. Paul in Ancient Corinth. We will enjoy lunch and stop for wine tasting in Corinth, where we will learn about Greek wine production. Tonight, we have a festive dinner in the Plaka section of the city. (B.L.Special dinner)

June 20, Saturday, Day 12: RETURN TO THE USA

Today marks the end of our pilgrimage. We will say our heartfelt farewells to a journey that will last in our memory forever. We are transferred to the Athens airport for our return flight home. (B)
